

ENGLISH SUMMER READING

ENTERING GRADE 7

Ms. McGuire

In preparation for 7th grade, you are assigned to read one book to fulfill your summer reading requirement. You will be expected to complete various activities related to that book upon your return to school in September. You may read your choice of a Newbery Medal or Honor book.

The Newbery Medal is given each year by the American Library Association to the most distinguished American children's book of the previous year. Each January, the gold medal winner is announced along with several honor books.

The list of choices is long and you have probably read or heard of many of them. Please choose a book that interests you and is on your reading level. You may not read a book that you have already read, and you may not read The Giver, The Witch of Blackbird Pond, An American Plague, or The Black Pearl (because you may read those later in school).

Suggestions for choosing a Newbery book:

- Check out the guidelines that Ms. Kleinberg posted on the 6th Grade eBoard (also listed below).
- Visit and explore The Official Newbery Award Site. If you want to know more about a title, click on it or search it from Google, Amazon, teachingbooks.net (from the Virtual Reference Collection) or our very own Montauk Library.
- At the Montauk Library site, click on the spinning letters "OPAC" to search the library's collection of books. From the Montauk Library OPAC search for keyword: Newbery. You will get a list of the books that the library has that have anything to do with the Newbery award - including medal winners and honor books. Be careful not to pick one that is just about the Newbery Award.

You are encouraged to read more than one book (Newbery or other) to get a head start on next year's "Meeting the Reading Challenge." This is a program, in both English and reading, which requires all students to read and keep track of ten outside reading books each year. Students will show proof of having read four books in the form of quarterly projects/presentations. You will learn more about this exciting program next year.

Happy summer and happy reading!

ENGLISH SUMMER READING

Ms. McGuire

ONLY for students attending the MPS Summer Reading Program:

In order to best facilitate your summer reading, you are being assigned a specific Newbery Medal book, The Watsons Go to Birmingham, by Christopher Paul Curtis. This will enable you and your classmates to read together, engage in group discussion and participate in collaborative projects based on the same text. Please make every attempt to get a copy of this book and bring it with you to the program.

Remember, you are encouraged to read more than one book (Newbery or other) to get a head start on next year's Meeting the Reading Challenge. This is a program in both English and reading which requires students to read and keep track of ten outside reading books each year and show proof of having read four in the form of quarterly presentations. You will learn more about this next year.

The Watsons Go to Birmingham--1963
by Christopher Paul Curtis (Delacorte Press)

"From its hilarious opening chapters to its shattering conclusion, The Watsons Go to Birmingham is a compelling novel that brings to life an African-American family. It draws together everyday events in such a way as to send the Watsons on a journey to Birmingham that will change them forever. In his first book, Curtis uses the devastating events in Birmingham to integrate the dichotomy of familial love and stability with the racial strife of the 1960s."
